

Terms and Conditions for Listing Your Group with The Stoic Fellowship

Introduction

The goal of The Stoic Fellowship is to build, foster, and connect Stoic groups around the world. This means we aim to provide assistance and advice in running your group to the best of our ability. However, we do not assume any responsibility for anything that may occur in your group and list your group at our sole discretion, which we reserve the right to revoke at any time at our sole discretion.

The minimum requirements for being listed with The Stoic Fellowship

In order for us to list your group, we ask that you adhere to the minimum following requirements:

1. Your group must primarily focus on Stoicism and Stoic philosophy
2. Your group must meet live, either in person or via video call
3. Your group should meet every three months at a minimum (although almost all our members meet more frequently than this)
4. While your group may focus on specific topics, your group must not discriminate against anyone attending according to personal characteristics such as age, disability, ethnicity, religion, sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity
5. Your group should not advocate hate or violence

Waiver of liability

You agree to assume full responsibility for any and all activities which occur during your meeting, and you waive the right to indemnify, defend and hold The Stoic Fellowship, its Board, volunteers, and affiliates against any liability arising from activities that occur during your meetings.
